COACH MAYBERRY UPDATE

Hoop Historian John Mayberry continues to convalesce after breaking his leg. Although the road to recovery will be a long process, Coach

Mayberry is getting stronger every day and is working hard with his therapy to assure a return trip to the Final Four in New Orleans.

FINAL FOUR PREVIEW: 200 DAYS AND COUNTING

With 200 more days until the Final Four, several Hoop Historians and Friends of the Hoop Historians gathered at Guaranteed Rate Field in Chicago to take in the Chicago White Sox and Los Angeles Angels baseball game.

LONG DISTANCE TRAVELER: Al Sack (left) came in from California to see his beloved Angels and got to talk baseball with the Cubs' biggest fan Fred Allman.

CHICAGO'S DREAM TEAM: Larry Baker, Joe Lyons, Joe Makowski, Kevin McCann, Joe Spagnolo and Mike Gibbons.

YOU'RE ON THE AIR: White Sox radio broadcaster Darrin Jackson (left) stopped in to visit with Friend of the Hoop Historians Dick Clish.

SWEET SEATS: The Hoop Historians enjoy their great Suite seats at Guaranteed Rate Field.

HOSTESS WITH THE MOSTEST: White Sox Ticket Agent Maryssa Cladis (right) and Joe Spagnolo helped plan for a memorable evening.

SMALL DISCUSSION GROUPS: There's nothing better than the lively art of conversation with the Hoop Historians.
