BILLY T ON THE MOVE

You can't keep a good man down. Hoop Historian Billy T. Haynes is back on his feet after two knee replacements, which he had this spring and summer. The Hall of Fame referee looks to be back in action this season after a successful recuperation. Executive Director Joe Spagnolo along with Friend of the Hoop Historians Buz Criscione visited with Haynes during a horse racing trip to three different states.

HOOP HISTORIANS APPAREL ORDERS START IN OCTOBER

Just in time for the tip-off of the upcoming basketball season, Hoop Historians merchandise and apparel will be available for purchase in the Hoop Historians on-line store. The order window will be open from October 15-31. More information will be included in the next issue of the Hoop Historians News.

Information on preferred hotel accommodations for the Final Four will be communicated to Hoop Historians who are NABC members next month. Watch your e-mail for this important announcement.

CONGRATULATIONS TO DENNIS AND KATHLEEN MISHKO

Salutations are in order for Hoop Historian Dennis Mishko, Jr. who tied the knot with his bride Kathleen this summer in Pennsylvania.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL IN THE LONE STAR STATE

A few Hoop Historians met this month in Austin, Texas to watch Southern Cal and the University of Texas lock horns on the gridiron. The crew got to visit the LBJ Ranch, the Johnson Presidential Library, the state capitol and plenty of barbeque during the week.

FIGHT ON: Joe Spagnolo, Sue Cimbaluk, Dorothy Kim, Al Sack and Sunny Shepherd enjoy the pre-game get together.
