

CAL DILWORTH
1931 – 2018

Hoop Historian Cal Dilworth passed away on his 87th birthday, November 8. Cal was the former Director of Detroit's Master's Sports and Recreation Program, a group that he founded at age 50 and managed for twenty years. A former Harlem Globetrotter, Cal played for Team USA abroad in seven countries. He was inducted into five different Hall of Fames and sponsored an Endowed Basketball Scholarship at Wayne State University. Cal started basketball participation in the Huntsman World Senior Games in 1986 by organizing and bringing teams to play there on an annual basis, and played in the event for more than 30 years. Cal was a long-time member of the National Basketball Coaches Association and attended every Final Four from 1989 to 2017. For his many accomplishments, Dilworth was recognized in 2011 by the Hoop Historians for his years of service and being an ambassador to the sport of basketball.

SPANNING THE GLOBE

Hoop Historians Hersh Cherson recently spent an interesting 24 hours. While on a business trip, Hersh had breakfast in Hong Kong, lunch in Taipei and made it back home for dinner in Yorba Linda, California.

HOOP HISTORIANS PHOTO GALLERY

Send your pictures to:
hoophistorians@hotmail.com

AT THE GRIDIRON: Sunny Shepherd, Dorothy Kim, Joe Spagnolo and Al Sack are watching college football at the LA Coliseum.

ON THE JOB: Friend of the Hoop Historians Ed Munson worked his third World Series this year as Official Scorer.

HARD AT WORK: Marquette Basketball Statistician Dave DeGrace went south of the border to work a game at DePaul University this month.

Visit us at:
www.hoophistorians.com

STILL STREAKING: Fred Allman attended his third straight Game 1 of the NLCS this fall in Milwaukee. Fred also was present for NLCS Game Ones at Wrigley Field in 2016 and 2017.

GREETINGS FROM THE AEGEAN SEA: It's Joe Makowski (center) spreading goodwill with members of the National Turkish basketball team.

SEND US YOUR PICTURES OF YOUR PLAYING DAYS

Attention all Hoop Historians and Friends of the Hoop Historians: Send us your pictures from when you played, cheered or coached. We will compile those photos from yesteryear on our website. Send your pictures to:
hoophistorians@hotmail.com

2019 FINAL FOUR

APRIL 6 & 8