

HOOP HISTORIANS ADD NEW MEMBER

Larry Baker was elected to the Hoop Historians at their Annual Meeting in Minneapolis. Baker has attended 44 consecutive Final Fours and has been involved in various basketball activities for the past five decades.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

At its Annual Business Meeting the Hoop Historians re-elected Ted Reineking and Al Sack to two-year terms on the Board of Directors. Newcomer Tom Tallarito was elected to a one-year term. They join John Mayberry and Dennis Mishko on the Executive Board.

HOOPSTERS ENJOY BUSY FINAL FOUR WEEK

Besides attending the games, going to social events and attending meetings, the Hoop Historians had a lot on their plates during Finals week. Activities included trips to the Minnesota State Capitol, the Cathedral of St. Paul, Minnehaha Falls and a tour of Target Field. On the baseball tour, Hoop Historian Pat Irvine got to take a picture next to a portrait of her brother Billy Martin, who managed the Twins to an American League West Division Championship in 1969.

CONGRATS ON 50 FINAL FOURS

Hoop Historian Brian Burmeister attended his 50th Final Four this year. He became the second Hoop Historian in the past two years to reach that mark. John Mayberry presented him with an award for his accomplishment. Mayberry attended his 50th Final Four last year.

KEVIN McCANN WINS HOOP HISTORIANS TRIVIA CONTEST

There's a new King of Trivia in the Hoop Historians. Kevin McCann defeated both Guy Baldwin and Brian Burmeister in the finals to win the 2nd Annual Hoop Historians Trivia Contest.

AND THERE'S ALWAYS A LOT OF WALKING

Strong leg muscles are a must to keep up with the Hoop Historians. From Thursday through Monday during Final Four Week, Executive Director Joe Spagnolo logged 83,807 steps and 39.33 miles of walking during that five day stretch on the streets of the Twin Cities.
