HOOP HISTORIANS ATTEND NATIONAL COACHES CLINIC

Four Hoop Historians assembled at the 16th Annual Palm Springs Coaches Clinic in California last month. In attendance were Michael Johnson; Vern Vegso, who helped coordinate the three day event; and the always helpful John Mayberry, who assisted with public relations. Honorary Hoop Historian Jim Harrick was a guest motivational speaker. The event began in 1995 and has been an annual staple in the California area every year.

USC FOOTBALL MEETING AT THE MIGHTY MISSISSIPPI

Members of the Hoop Historians gathered last month for the University of Southern California – Minnesota football game in Minneapolis. Dorothy & Surl Kim took nearly 100 Trojans fans on another memorable Kim Tours excursion, which included a paddle boat ride on the Mississippi River and a tour of the Twin Cities. The weekend didn't disappoint the USC faithful, as the Trojans prevailed 32-21 against the Big Ten opponent.

BLASTS FROM THE PAST

Over the next few editions, The Hoop Historian News will be running pictures from the past of our Hoop Historians members in action. Since this month's newsletter focuses on Coaching Clinics, there's probably no better picture to bring back than Coach John Mayberry (below right) in this Camp shot with basketball legend Meadowlark Lemon. Mayberry worked with the Harlem Globetrotter at Camp Meadowlark for over twenty years.
